This year's conference fee for everyone is $150 per person***.

This includes:

- Friday evening's wine and "hearty" hors d'oeuvres reception and program at the Crooked Tree Arts Center, with Valerie Hemingway presenting and signing books
- Saturday morning's discussion of three of the "Nick Adams" stories
- Saturday afternoon's talk by bookseller Steve Ruebelman on collecting first editions
- Saturday evening's dinner and program at The Perry with Paul Hendrickson
- Sunday morning's breakfast and program on Hemingway's friends in his writing

The bus tour this year from 12 noon to 2:30 pm on Saturday afternoon is an added option. It will be a fascinating visit to various sites in the area, with informative chats from actual "ghosts" of Hemingway's friends. The cost is an additional $17, and will include the bus tour, a box lunch, and admission to the Little Traverse History Museum. It is limited to the first 50 who sign up.
